Happy Songkran Holidays 2556

CGI Learning Center wishes everyone the most enjoyable hot summer days!

Along with CGI celebration to pay grateful respect to faculty members, CGI Learning Center with cooperation from CGI Administration Division organized an event to promote cultures and religious activities on April 4th.

Cultural Project

held on 12th Floor featuring the traditional ceremony that Thai people perform on Songkran Festival. The art of table setting to worship the Triple Gems, legends of Songkran in ASEAN, and Chinese proverb that encourages the social moral are included in the exhibition with books and multimedia display. Guests are served with cold herbal drinks.

Seminars and workshops 2013

CGI Learning Center has successfully organized since last year, a seminar "EndNote Web and ISI database" on December 2012, and "Britannica Online workshop" on November 5, 2012. And, we began this year 2013 with a seminar "Trends of marketing the information service via social media" on February 21, 2013.

And, CGI Learning Center also arranged a small group tour to

"Buddhadasa Archives"

on February 22, 2013.

These activities set the target at CGI human resources to share and to be aware of the performance and duties of CGI Learning Center. CGI students and staff are most welcome to participate. We are happy to announce the coming event scheduled by the second quarter of 2013. Library orientations will be arranged in May to introduce new students and all CGI Learning Center customers to familiarize with our new look of library book catalog. It offers more online services such as online self checking of borrowed items and renewals of overdue books via Facebook, etc. The Online databases searching workshops will take place in April and May for those who need to brush up with international reference databases. New tactics and so easily searching strategy to receive your full articles will be disclosed and shared.

Survey result in Brief 2013

CGI Learning Center thanks all those who participated in our survey, and we have good news that as a result from your comments, actions have been taken. New additional self learning facilities have been acquired – 5 sets of wireless headphones are now available for clients to view DVD presentation. And, we are testing on the use of e-book readers to accompany reading our printed resources. Moreover, an OPAC search station has been provided for students to easily search for available books from CGI and CRI. Last but not least, CGI Learning Center promise to update ourselves with new IT trends in order to serve all clients from CGI and CRI the best we can.

The survey was conducted online from February 19 to March 15, 2013. Questionnaire was distributed to CGI and CRI communities by announcing on CGI website, e-mails and CGI Learning Center Facebook. A number of respondents were expected at 50 and 53 returned.
