A research publication in honor of His Majesty King Bhumibol's 84th Birthday Celebration on the 5th December 2011, from the collaborative work of Dr. Chatchapol Chaiyaphorn, Ravee Sajjasophon, and Pativat Sukprakob, was published by the Office of the National Educational Council. And, because 2013 is the year that Bangkok won the nomination to be UNESCO World Book Capital,

CGI then participates in the reading campaign to encourage CGI community to enjoy more reading for general knowledge and for pleasure.

Royal Chakri Dynasty Collection AND CGI Digital Archives

The CGI Archives is planned to preserve and make accessible CGI documentary heritage for future CGI generations. The digital archives started from the first CGI graduation commencement which collected pictures taken from the ceremony, and graduates roster, as well as working process and duties responsible by concerned departments. 2013 marks the year of H.R.H. Princess Chulabhorn 56th Birthday and the 8th year of CGI establishment. A picture collection of CGI Building showed the ground preparation and physical construction that was started in 2005 before the completion of the present building in 2009.
